

---

Celebrate this year's Kentucky Derby Festival at the law library. On Wednesday April 23, 2014 hear attorney, lecturer, thoroughbred horse owner, and author of Equine Regulatory Law Robert Heleringer discusses the history of horse racing.

A drawing will be held: A day/night at the Downs* for six & a copy of Mr. Heleringer's book! *blackout dates apply

Learn the stories behind such legends as August Belmont, racing's "savior", and the origins of the famous expression "living the life of Riley."

Bernie Hettel, Executive Secretary, Virginia Racing Commission says "From Gate to wire - "Equine Regulatory Law" is a Grade 1 Win. Well-written, scholarly, but entertaining, too."

At the Jefferson County Public Law Library,
514 W. Liberty St., Ste 240,
Louisville, KY 40202